

CP201-02
Introduction to the 2012 IRC Plumbing Codes (4)

Course Code: CP201-02

Course: Introduction to the 2012 IRC Plumbing Codes

Hours: 4

Designed For: Building Inspectors, Contractors, Plumbing Inspectors, Plans Examiners

Course Goals: To provide the student with a practical knowledge of the plumbing codes in the 2012 International Residential Code for effective inspections and plan review.

Prerequisites: None

Certification: None

Max. Class Size: Dependant on Room Size

Restrictions: None

State Recert #: TBD

REQUIRED STUDENT MATERIALS

2012 International Residential Code

REQUIRED INSTRUCTOR MATERIALS

REFERENCES

2012 International Residential Code

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Provide the student with a general understanding of the 2012 IRC plumbing codes.

GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION

NA

COURSE DELIVERY

- a. Administration
- b. Definitions
- c. Basic Principles
- d. '12 Plumbing Changes
- e. Materials
- f. Minimum Required Facilities
- g. Basic Plumbing Installations
- h. Conclusion

GRADING AND SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION

None – No Certification Granted

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This course was written by and used for the training of inspectors and contractors by the staff of the Tennessee Fire Service and Codes Enforcement Academy.